PRODUCT STORY

The Unio Collection opens up a new chapter for Poiat Studio towards different kinds of furniture and design. It offers a view for new and upcoming, while at the same time acknowledges the past decades' influences and nostalgia. The collection consists of three different sizes: a two and three-seater sofa and a single-seater armchair. The selection of upholstery fabrics for Unio-collection is a carefully curated selection of fine fabrics from the industry's most esteemed manufacturers, such as Dedar, Pierre Frey and Larsen. "This collection was born out of our Studio's interest in studying the relationship between wood and soft furniture. From the very beginning, the idea was to tell about the dimensions of seats' properties with their form and design. The design process developed into a versatile examination of shapes and dimensions: the result satisfies our entire design team.", says Timo Mikkonen, the co-founder and Head of Design at Poiat Studio.
