

Dowel Jones

Archie Low Stool

The Archie Low Stool features a steel frame made up of slightly curved sections, with a softly carved solid timber seat for comfort. Blending strong lines with a thin tubular frame creates a minimal stool with added comfort. Archie's strength and functionality will ensure years of everyday use in both high-traffic seating areas and in private environments.

Archie is currently available in low stool, counter height stool and bar height stool versions.

- Over 20+ powder coat frame colours
- American Ash seat available
