

Design By Antoni Arola

Asia combines balance and precision in a luminaire that celebrates the purity of lacquered glass. In its largest version, it becomes a linear piece with architectural presence, bathing the space in an even, enveloping light.

Ideal for large tables or continuous compositions, it defines the atmosphere with serene clarity, transforming the everyday into calm and balance.

Design By Antoni Arola

Asia combines balance and precision in a luminaire that celebrates the purity of glass. With medium proportions, its light adapts naturally to different spaces, accompanying meeting or working areas with serenity.

Its suspended design balances the transparency of glass and the strength of metal, creating a warm, functional and elegant atmosphere.

Design By Antoni Arola

Asia combines balance and precision in a luminaire that celebrates the purity of glass. Its more compact format concentrates the light into a warm, silent point, ideal for small tables or multiple compositions.

Suspended with lightness, it projects a dual light — diffuse and directional — offering intimacy and clarity in perfect harmony.
